

LOUISIANA STATE MUSEUM

Baton Rouge

Discovering the History and Culture of the Cane River Region

Cane River Back Roads

February-May

Experience artist Michael Graham's "Visual Memories" telling the story of Cane River and the people who have lived there.

On display in the Program Room during regular museum hours

March 29 3-4pm

Michael Graham will be on hand to discuss his artwork and the creative process he uses for capturing forgotten scenes of the past.

Free to the public, includes free admission to the museum

Munchin' on those Meat Pies!

March 1 3-4pm

Discover the unique cultural origins of Natchitoches' most famous treat and its connection to early Spanish settlers in Louisiana. Experience creating meat pies and tasting them!

$5 Registration includes program and meat pie samples. Appropriate ages 6-10 with an adult. Call 225/ 342-5414

Cammie Henry and Her Famous Friends

March 15 3-4:30pm

Share in the life of Cammie Henry of Melrose Plantation and her lifelong passion for art and history. Mary Linn Wernet, Head Archivist of the Cammie G. Henry Research Center at Northwestern State University will reflect on the significance of Henry's support for the arts and the written word in Louisiana. Presentation will also include Henry's support for noted author, Lyle Saxon.

Free to the public, includes free admission to the museum